

University of Wisconsin-Madison
Geography Undergraduate Colloquium

Public Presentations

- 5:45 Opening Remarks
- 6:00 Edgewater Redevelopment: Controversy on the Waterfront
- 6:20 Implications of Madison's Bicycling Policies for a Heterogeneous Population
- 6:40 Determining Key Factors in the Decision-Making Process for LEED Certification in Madison, WI
- 7:00 The Distance between Them: An Economic Geography of Students and Restaurants in Wisconsin
- 7:20 Educating for Global Competence: A Case Study of North Woods International Elementary School
- 7:40 A Sense of Place: Invisible Badgers
- 8:00 Break – 10 Minutes
- 8:10 Striking a Balance: Conservation and Recreation in the Wisconsin State Parks
- 8:30 Picnic in the Park: A Demographic Case Study of Brittingham Park
- 8:50 Picnic Point: A Study on Student Use and Perception
- 9:10 Sustainability of a UW Cafeteria: Frank's Place
- 9:30 Business is Blooming: A Historical Exploration of the Development of the Dane County Farmers' Market and the Factors of its Success
- 9:50 Lake Wingra: Changing Perceptions and Land-Use Decisions of Madison Wetlands

Tuesday, 13 December 2011
180 Science Hall