

It's the Most Dangerous Time of the Year

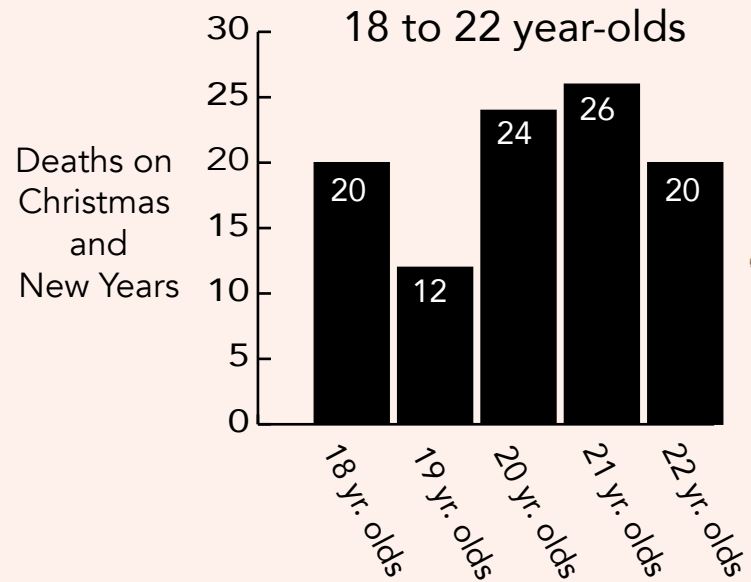

A closer look at drunk driving deaths in the U.S. over the Christmas and New Year holidays in 2011

The blood alcohol content (BAC) limit for drivers in every state is .08. Anyone driving with a BAC of .08 or higher is driving while alcohol-impaired.

B.A.C. LIMIT
.08

Drunk Driving Deaths of 18 to 22 year-olds

Most drunk driving deaths occurred from young adults aged 18 to 22 years-old.

Holiday Drunk Driving Score (Deaths/millions of people)

State's First DUI Offence Fine

