

River Trees of the United States

Size of trunks, branches, limbs, and twigs roughly about one point for every ten thousand cubic feet per second of discharge. Selected cities of above one hundred thousand in population are shown. Bigger leaves have above two hundred and fifty thousand in population. Fifty miles is roughly: — Mississippi N. — Columbia N. — Colorado N. Rivers and Cities from Natural Earth. Cartographer: Nathaniel Ellis