

Hydrated States of America

Comparing Percentage Surface Area to Size of Largest Lake of Each Contiguous State

Many colder states will use their freezing lakes for fundraising purposes. People will donate money to participate in diving into the lake during the winter months

Lake Superior is the largest lake within the U.S. by volume containing over 2900 cubic miles of water

The largest lake located in the U.S. is Great Salt Lake in Utah, measuring in at 1700 square miles!

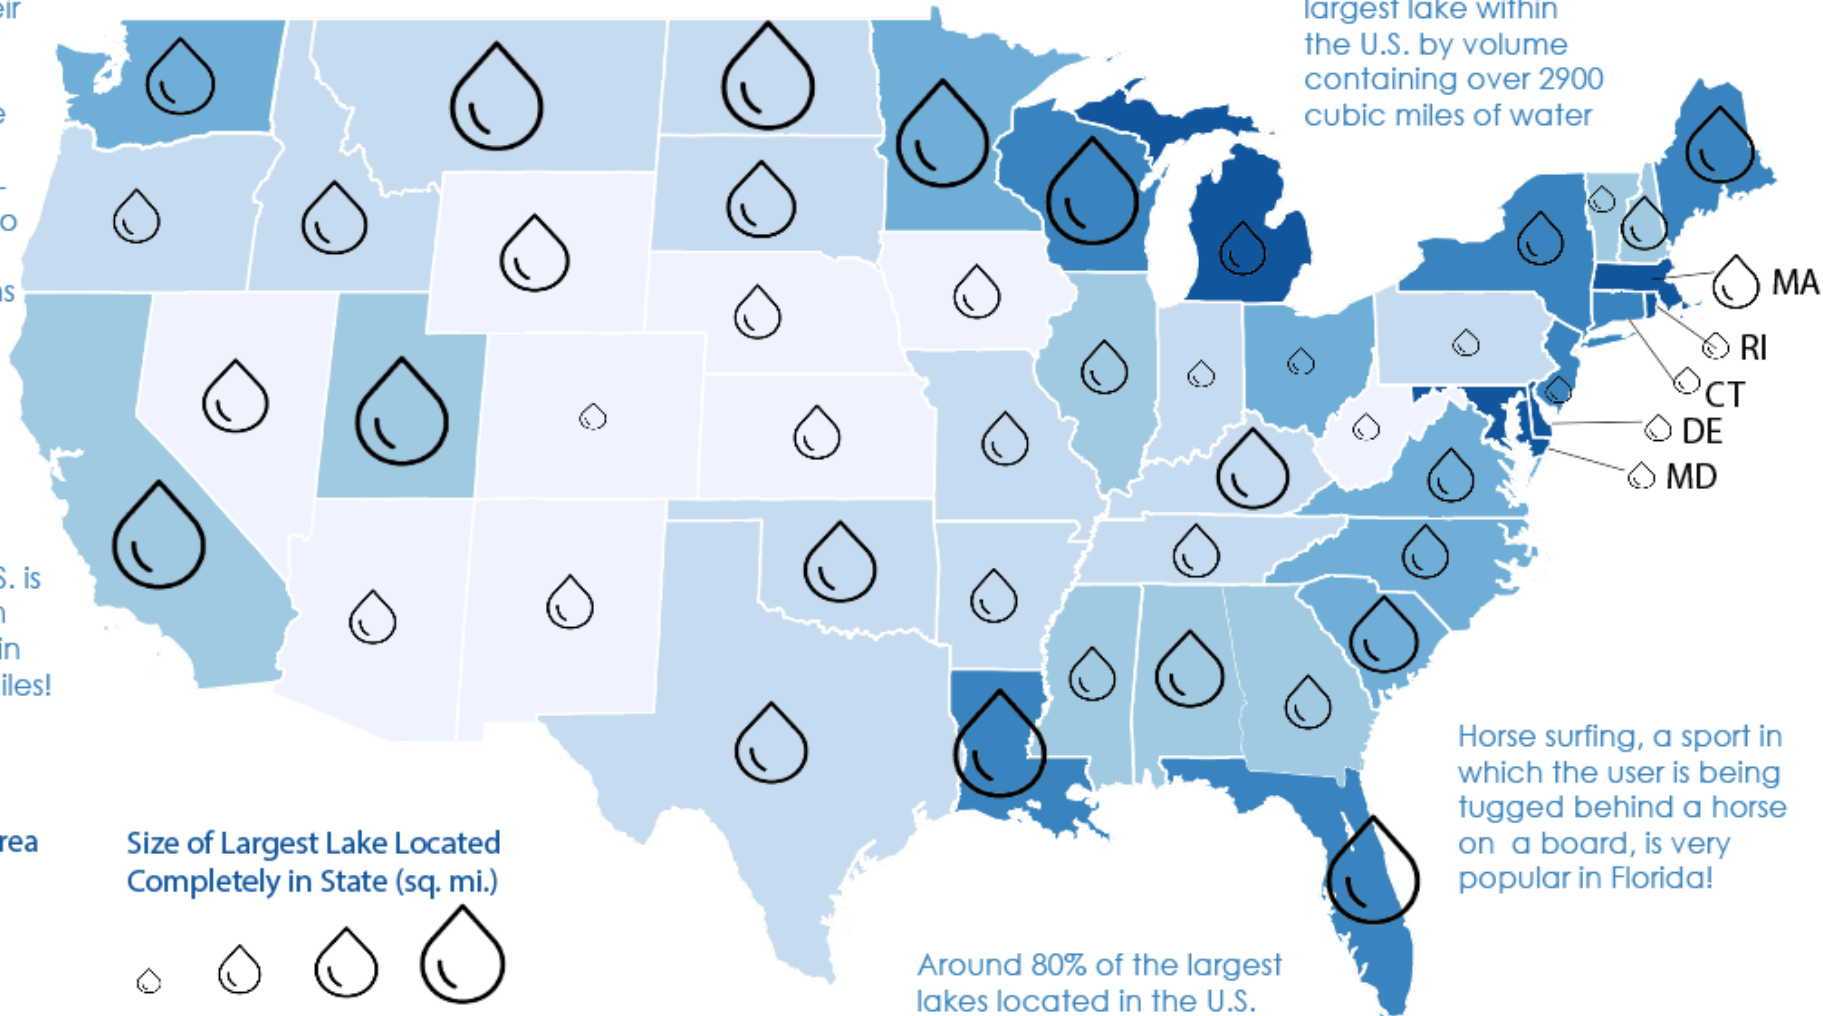

Horse surfing, a sport in which the user is being tugged behind a horse on a board, is very popular in Florida!

Percent Surface Area Covered by Water

Size of Largest Lake Located Completely in State (sq. mi.)

- <1%
- 1%-3%
- 3%-5%
- 5%-10%
- 10%-20%
- 20%+

- <20
- 20-100
- 100-200
- 200+

Around 80% of the largest lakes located in the U.S. are manmade, specifically reservoirs and damned lakes!