

Room Tour - Fall 2023

Or where I found furniture for my semester abroad in Madison

In fall 2023 I was an exchange student UW Madison. I arrived in late August and had just a few weeks earlier signed a lease for an apartment close to Lake Monona. I didn't want to buy furniture just for a few months and so my flat-mate and I took to the streets to collect important pieces not just for my room, but for the whole flat.

Grand Central Porchlight

Sellery
Residence Hall

The HUB

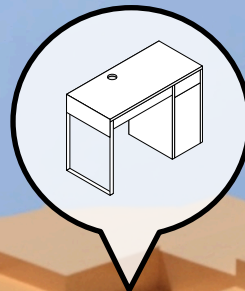

The James

Lark
at Kohl

Lake Mendota

Three
medicine
Phd's were written at this table.

I didn't sleep
much this semester, but when I did this comfy
bed was all I needed.

Cycling is how I get around and exercise.

I bought my bike
off someone 4
days after my arrival in Madison.

A microwave is essential for student survival...
How else would one eat
Pizza the day after a party?

No room is complete without a chair to throw cloths on to.

Wisconsin
State Capitol

Color and height of Census Blocks
represent
population density*

* People per ha (10,000m<sup>2</sup>)

Kohl
Center

Brittingham Park

Monona Bay

I missed two things
from Germany:
1. Good Bread
2. Screen space

